I then grabbed onto his right hand and began to move it to his back as he kicked me in the right shin area with his right foot and then pushed his body against Officer Moynahan and myself in an attempt to flee. Mr. BRADLEY was told that he was under arrest and to put his hands behind his back which he refused. Mr. BRADLEY was then shoved against the car and told to stop resisting arrest as attempts were made to place him into handcuffs. Mr. BRADLEY continued to move his arms towards his stomach as he attempted to turn his body. Mr. BRADLEY was eventually overpowered and placed into custody. As I escorted Mr. BRADLEY to the rear of my cruiser he was actively resisting by pulling his body away from me and refusing to move forward. I again had to overpower Mr. BRADLEY and continue to pull him to my cruiser, once the cruiser door was opened Mr. BRADLEY refused to get into the vehicle which resulted in me having to push him by the chest to get into the cruiser. No weapons or contraband were located on Mr. BRADLEY during the booking procedures.

An administrative inventory of the vehicle revealed an open Hennessy liquor bottle on the rear driver side floorboard and Ms. Robinson was informed that she would be receiving a citation and that a criminal application would be filed for the open container, stop sign violation, and the use without authority of the rental vehicle (15-2754-WA). The vehicle was towed via CJ's towing after several attempts to contact Thrifty Car Rental to no avail. Mr. BRADLEY was transported to 130 Pearl Street for processing.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sir,

This is to respectfully inform you that on Wednesday, August 26, 2015 at approximately 0245 hours, Officers C. Lariviere, J. Bienvenue, D. Moynahan, T. Ellison, C. Cicero and I (J. Dunn) arrested Daniel Bradley DOB 12-04-1986 of 5 West Laramie Green St Indian Orchard, MA at the intersection of King and Logan Streets for the following offenses:

- 1) Assault and Battery on Police Officer
- 2) Resist Arrest

On August 26, 2015 at approximately 0210 hours, Officer C. Cicero and I were operating our marked Springfield Police cruiser 98 South on Northampton Avenue behind a gray 2015 Chrysler 200 color gray bearing New York registration GYM4752. The vehicle approached the intersection of Northampton Avenue and King Street and failed to stop at the stop sign located at the intersection as it turned westbound onto King Street. Officer Cicero activated our emergency overhead lights to effect a traffic stop which took place at the intersection of King and Logan Streets.

Officer Cicero approached the operator of the vehicle and asked for their driver's license and the vehicles registration. The operator, Daeshavana Robinson, provided her Massachusetts drivers license but was unable to provide the registration and stated that it was a rental vehicle. The rental agreement states that the vehicle is currently under agreement to Lynette Braxton with no other operators listed as additional drivers. The rental agreement also stated that it had expired on August 7, 2015.

Ms. Robinson was advised that she was operating the vehicle without authority and that the agreement was expired. Ms. Robinson was advised that the vehicle would be towed and a citation would be issued. As the conversation continued I observed the rear passenger, later identified as Mr. Daniel BRADLEY, begin to shuffle in his seat to the left and then towards his right side while moving his right hand from his shorts to the door jam of the rear passenger door out of my field of view. Please note that the Gunn Square/King Street area is well known to officers for numerous firearms and narcotics arrests as well as numerous Shot Spotter activations. Fearing that Mr. BRADLEY may have been attempting to conceal or reach for something, the door was opened and Mr. BRADLEY was asked to step from the vehicle.

Mr. BRADLEY was moved to the rear of the vehicle where a pat frisk was conducted of his person as no items appeared to be in the door jam area. Immediately at the onset of the pat frisk, Mr. BRADLEY began to push his hips and back against Officer Moynahan and myself while clenching his fists and telling officers to leave him alone. Mr. BRADLEY was told to relax his body and cooperate with us. Officer Moynahan informed Mr. BRADLEY that he was going to pat frisk his front waistband and crotch area. This area is a common for concealing firearms, allowing immediate access and concealment. Once Officer Moynahan informed him and began to pat the area, Mr. BRADLEY immediately pressed his body forward against the vehicle, trapping Officer Moynahans hand between the body and the vehicle. Given these observations and the demeanor of Mr. BRADLEY, he was advised that he was being detained and I removed my handcuffs from my duty belt. Mr. BRADLEY began to flex his arms while continuing to clench his fists and refused to move his hands.

I then grabbed onto his right hand and began to move it to his back as he kicked me in the right shin area with his right foot and then pushed his body against Officer Moynahan and myself in an attempt to flee. Mr. BRADLEY was told that he was under arrest and to put his hands behind his back which he refused. Mr. BRADLEY was then shoved against the car and told to stop resisting arrest as attempts were made to place him into handcuffs. Mr. BRADLEY continued to move his arms towards his stomach as he attempted to turn his body. Mr. BRADLEY was eventually overpowered and placed into custody. As I escorted Mr. BRADLEY to the rear of my cruiser he was actively resisting by pulling his body away from me and refusing to move forward. I again had to overpower Mr. BRADLEY and continue to pull him to my cruiser, once the cruiser door was opened Mr. BRADLEY refused to get into the vehicle which resulted in me having to push him by the chest to get into the cruiser. No weapons or contraband were located on Mr. BRADLEY during the booking procedures.

An administrative inventory of the vehicle revealed an open Hennessy liquor bottle on the rear driver side floorboard and Ms. Robinson was informed that she would be receiving a citation and that a criminal application would be filed for the open container, stop sign violation, and the use without authority of the rental vehicle (15-2754-WA). The vehicle was towed via CJ's towing after several attempts to contact Thrifty Car Rental to no avail. Mr. BRADLEY was transported to 130 Pearl Street for processing.

Respectfully Submitted,

Officer Joseph A Dunn
